FOR SERVICE TO NEW YORK CITY

JOHN FISH

Chairman & CEO
Suffolk

John F. Fish is the Chairman and CEO of Suffolk, a national contractor and real estate enterprise that builds, innovates and invests. Under his vision and leadership, Suffolk has grown into one of the leading and most innovative privately held builders in the country. With $10 billion in annual revenue, Suffolk is ranked 23rd on the Engineering News-Record national list of Top 400 Contractors.

Mr. Fish is a fixture on numerous Boards focused on economic stability and real estate industry growth. He recently served as Chair of the Real Estate Roundtable, a non-partisan organization that convenes government, business and communities to establish more equitable policies for economic growth. He is the founding member and current Director of the Massachusetts Competitive Partnership (MACP) and former Chairman of the Board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston. In New York City, Mr. Fish is Director of the Real Estate Board of New York and a member of the Partnership for New York City, and he sits on the National Business Roundtable.

Mr. Fish serves as Chair of Brigham and Women's Hospital and sits on the Executive Committee of Mass General Brigham. He also serves on the Board of the Feinstein Institutes for Medical Research at Northwell Health. He is the Chair of the Board at Boston College, his second time serving that role and first non-alum to fulfill that role. Mr. Fish is also on the Board of Overseers for Home Base.

In 2009, Mr. Fish founded Scholar Athletes and led the program for more than ten years, improving the lives of thousands of inner-city high school students by leveraging the proven link between school athletics and academics.

Mr. Fish is a graduate of Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. He received an honorary Doctor of Engineering Technology degree from Wentworth Institute of Technology, is the recipient of an honorary degree from Regis College, and received an honorary degree in Business Administration from Curry College.

For a career defined by building lasting legacies in industry, civic leadership, and philanthropy, echoing the enduring contributions of the Rudin family, John Fish is a deserving recipient of the Jack and Lewis Rudin Award for Service to New York City award.
